"My Mind Says Yes... But My Body Says No!"

By Lou Coleman

Paul summarizes it in [Romans 7:15-16, 18], "My own behavior baffles me. For I find myself doing what I really hate, and not doing what I really want to do..." Can you relate to this? He's saying all the things I don't want to do I end up doing and all the things I do want to do I end up not doing. I want to do what's right, but I don't. I don't want to do what's bad, but I do. Even though I know what the right thing to do is, why can't I bring myself to do it?

Struggling with sin is frustrating. You want to change. But you just can't. You have the motivation. But you don't have the determination. You have the desire to do what is right. But for some reason, you can't do it. Paul says it's because evil is right there alongside of us. Evil - not just bad choices, Evil itself. We live in that kind of world. A world where the force of Sin, the force of Evil has rubbed off on us. We're affected by it, tainted by it and we can't help it. We can't avoid it, we can't outwit it. No matter how much we may wish to serve God in our minds, we find ourselves sinning in our bodies. As Paul describes his frustration in [Romans 7], with his mind he desires to serve God. He wants to do what is right, but his body will not respond. He watches, almost as a third party, as sin sends a signal to his body and as his body responds, "What would you like to do?" Paul finds, as we do that while our fleshly bodies refuse to obey God and do that which we desire and which delights God, it quickly and eagerly respond to the impulses and desires aroused by sin. The interaction between the soul (mind, will, emotions) and our Spirit and our Body is where the decisive battles take place. It is a battle of rulership. (To read more visit www. wssnews.com.)

In addition to Early Voting sites, the Ballot Selfie poster will be placed at every polling place on Election Day. California law current-

The Future of Eating Habits: A Nonprofit's Solution to Childhood Obesity

By Sarai Garrett

Elizabeth McSwain, Caramel Founder of Founda-Connections tion, (CCF) recently announced the launch and upcoming fundraiser for her non-profit foundation. Elizabeth will host 'Bidding for Health' a Quartermania fundraising event on Sunday, May 22 from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. at 215 N. Laurel Avenue in Ontario. Quartermania is a fun event in which high quality items will be up for auction, participants bid up to eight quarters per item, once all bids are placed, and a randomly chosen number is called. Admission is $55 dollars per person, all proceeds benefit the CCF scholarship program.

Elizabeth's vision for serving a community of underserved children has piqued the interest of key community partners. When asked why she started her nonprofit Elizabeth replied, "We all know that we are heading in a dangerous path when it comes to healthy eating habits. We have to come together as a community and understand that enough is not being done to educate, help and aid our children and their parents in making the right choices."

Caramel Connections Foundation's scholarship program is geared towards middle school aged children. The curriculum is designed to engage children in healthy eating habits by learning about food, kitchen safety, agriculture, and math which includes measuring, science and more. CCF's mission is to make learning enjoyable by using food as a way to connect and build lasting relationships with their students and community.

The American Diabetes Association estimated that one out of every three children born after the year 2000 in the United States will be directly affected by diabetes. Data collected from the American Heart association and the American Diabetes Foundation suggest that an estimated 35% of children in the Inland Empire are prediabetic.

"It is no longer a matter of knowing there is a problem, but a matter of acting to ensure the future we leave for our children and their health is a priority for generations to come," said Elizabeth McSwain. CCF invites you to participate in their 'Bidding for Health' Quartermania event in an effort to raise awareness and funding for a healthier tomorrow.

For more information on CCF's Launch Fundraiser, Sponsorship and or Volunteer Opportunities, or to make a Donation, contact Caramel Connections Foundation www.CaramelConnectionsFoundation.org.

Boys & Girls Club of San Bernardino Launches Safe Summer Campaign with Inaugural Talent Show

SAN BERNARDI-NO, CA- Boys & Girls Club of San Bernardino (BGCSB) will host San Bernardino's Got Talent at 2 p.m. on Saturday, May 21, to launch a new Teen Multimedia Program. This program is a collaboration between BGCSB and CHORDS Enrichment Youth Program.

This year, the city of San Bernardino has had 26 homicides, forcing the community, law enforcement and city officials to come together to address the increase of violence and to find solutions. The BGCSB has many programs for the youth however due to the escalation of violence in the city and the risk it poses to local teens the BGC-SB decided to partner with CHORDS to provide programs that are engaging and appealing specifically to teens. CHORDS at the Boys & Girls Club of San Bernardino will provide the youth of San Bernardino a safe place to express themselves creatively. It also serves as an outlet to cope with social and economic challenges.

The talent show will begin with an open house. The open house starts at 2:00pm. BGCSB members and the community are encouraged to tour the Club and the newly renovated Teen Center. Club renovations were made possible by donations from Wells Fargo, Genesis Glass Installations and Lowe's Home Improvement.
