The Trump-Cards; Create Chaos & Declare Martial Law!

Every day or so, he will deliver another controversial Executive Order (EO) that cuts into the infrastructure of our laws and the Constitution. These EO's are designed to keep us so confused, that we shift our eyes away from what appears to be his real goal! We know Mr. Trump loves his cult supported power! Some say that he intends to be President for life.

I suggest that his cult members will soon be seeking relief! The poor and hungry among them are going to get poorer and hungrier. The middle class among them will not enjoy the restraints of inflation and the loss of government agencies that facilitate access to their middle-class lifestyle. I predict that many of the Trump cult members will soon be seeking a way to spit-out the Kool-Aid! His Anti-Christ-Economy will definitely hurt them, and they are going to raise hell!

However, they, like the unfortunate members of the Jim Jones Cult, need our help! We should take care to not ridicule them. They need a clear lane to redemption! I look forward to and will accept and support their shift to reality.

We should consider supporting them in an impeachment wellness campaign, as opposed to the civilian war that the Anti-Christ is fostering! A civilian war would become his ultimate shield of chaos. No matter who the combatants, his chaos-based opportunity would crystalize!

I expect that chaos is his chosen route to an extended reign on his seat of power! There will be no need to discuss or vote on it. A declared State of Emergency and Martial Law will become the anti-law of the land.

He will create chaos to justify a State of Emergency Declaration, which he will manipulate into more chaos, generating his obvious step to dictatorial power. He will declare Martial Law, and as Commander in Chief, will have the world's mightiest military to enforce it!

His most recent actions show that he is actively securing the bureaucracy. He has the Court. He has the Military, and a deadly Militia, and most alarming, he has the audacity!

Our Congress and Senate have the power to take charge. Impeachment needs to be a talking point!

John Salley Scores as Grand Marshal for the San Bernardino Black History Parade

SAN BERNARDINO, CA--- NBA All-Star and Hall of Famer John Thomas Salley, father, athlete, actor, serial entrepreneur, talk show host, philanthropist, wellness advocate, vegan, and champion, will serve as the Grand Marshal for the 2025 San Bernardino Black History Parade.

"We are pleased and excited to welcome John Sally as the Grand Marshall of the 46th Annual Black History Parade," said Black Cultural Foundation President Carl M. Dameron. "Amy Malone, President of the NCNW Inland Empire Section and Founder and President of Girl in Charge Public Relations, successfully secured John Salley for the parade."

"It is an honor to participate in the San Bernardino Black History Month Parade. Anytime I can celebrate the lives and accomplishments of Black people I will do so with pride. This parade is a way for me to honor the visionaries of the past and those who are on the forefront now advocating for our rights and liberties today." -John Salley with pride. This parade is a way for me to honor the visionaries of the past and those who are on the forefront now advocating for our rights and liberties today," said Salley.

Born and raised in Brooklyn, Salley developed a passion for basketball early on. He earned a full scholarship to Georgia Tech, where he played under legendary coach Bobby Cremins. Selected as the #11 pick in the 1986 NBA Draft, John's 15-year career is marked by historic milestones.

He became the first player to win four championships with three different teams: the iconic Detroit Pistons "Bad Boys," Michael Jordan's record-breaking 1996 Chicago Bulls, and the 2000 Los Angeles Lakers under Phil Jackson.

"Run to Safety —Run -Run as Fast as You Can!"

By Lou K. Coleman | WSS News Contributor

Lou K Coleman

You know, there is a story told of a vessel that was wrecked and was going down at sea. There were not enough lifeboats to take all on board. When the vessel went down, some of the lifeboats were near the vessel. A man swam from the wreck to one of the boats, but they had no room to take him on. When they refused, he seized hold of the boat with his right hand, but they took a sword and cut off his fingers. When he had lost the fingers of his right hand, the man was so earnest to save his life that he seized the boat with his left hand. They cut off the fingers of that hand too. Then the man swam up and seized the boat with his teeth. Now they had compassion on him and relented. They could not cut off his head, so they took him in, and the man's life was saved. Why? Because he was in earnest.

Why not seek your soul's salvation as that man sought to save his life? Don't wait until it's too late! Time is running out for our world. Consider today with some urgency your eternal life. For as Martin Luther King, Jr. said in his I have a dream speech in August 1963 on the steps of the Lincoln Memorial in Washington, D.C, "We have also come to this hallowed spot to remind America of the FIERCE URGENCY OF NOW." What a phrase that is. "The FIERCE URGENCY OF NOW." Some things simply can't be put off forever. Sometimes we must RESPOND NOW, we must ANSWER NOW, we must ACT NOW, we must NOT WAIT or DELAY or put things off.

Run to the only refuge there is, the refuge of Jesus Christ. If you go there, you are going to be safe from the coming judgment and the coming wrath. But, if you go outside of it, you're going to be killed. You're going to perish. [2 Thessalonians 3:3].

For God did not appoint us to suffer wrath but to receive salvation through Jesus. [1 Thessalonians 5:9]. Run - Run for your life! There is no time to waste! For the Bible speaks of a time at the end of the present age in the books of Daniel, Revelation, and Matthew, among others -- when there will be seven years of tribulation culminating in the battle of Armageddon in Israel and the return of Jesus Christ to the earth, in which right now, the stage is being set by Satan and his puppets. [Revelation 13].

Remember the Bible spoke of the Antichrist - a man who will appear on the world scene in the Last Days just before the return of Jesus Christ to the earth. Described in both the Old and New Testaments, he will be the very incarnation of evil cleverly disguised as a dynamic, charismatic, visionary leader. He will astound the world with his solutions to human problems. His empire will span every continent, and his rule will be the most demonic individual the world has ever experienced.

The Court Street Square, located at 349 North E Street will be transformed by the San Bernardino Parks, Recreation, and Community Services Department, much like recent celebrations such as the Christmas themed Miracle on Court Street in December and the Dia de los Muertos festival in November.

“The Court Street Square is quickly becoming the primary location for festive gatherings in San Bernardino,” said Interim Parks and Recreation Director Ernesto Salinas. “The City is committed to bringing amazing cultural celebrations downtown that are fun, colorful, and educational.”

Snoop Dogg and Caitlyn Jenner: Privilege Over Principles

By Jasmine Cannick

What do Snoop Dogg and Caitlyn Jenner have in common? No, this isn't the setup for a bad joke—it's a tragic reality. They've become poster children for the misguided belief that cozying up to power structures that openly despise them will somehow buy them a permanent seat at the table—or at least a pat on the head from the same people pulling the strings. Spoiler alert: it won't.

Take Caitlyn Jenner, for example, who's stanned for Trump who continues to actively work to push legislation that threatens her very existence. While she's off applauding his presidential win, the ink is barely dry on his executive orders mandating she be referred to by her birth name, Bruce.

Rather than taking a stand against these policies, she's leaned into her wealth and privilege, banking on it to shield her from the harm those same policies inflict on the trans community. Why? Because she's rich and insulated from the struggles and discrimination most trans people face. She can retreat to her Malibu mansion and comfortably tune out everyone else's reality. Because as long as Trump is coming up with ways to keep her rich—that's all that really matters. Newsflash: privilege isn't bulletproof, and proximity to power doesn't erase the hate aimed in her direction.

Then there's Snoop Dogg and his ilk, rappers who once stood as cultural titans now bending over backward to cozy up to the Trump tax bracket. After years of using the community to build their stacks, they are perfectly content to throw the same people who put them in their comfy tax bracket under the bus for a front-row seat at a table that was never built for them. They've swapped authenticity and influence for the illusion of inclusion, all while pretending the check is worth it. It's not—they know it, we know it. It's the reason at the domino table we say, “All ain't good money.”

California vs. Hate Aims to Improve Reporting in Rural Areas

By Edward Henderson | California Black Media

In May of 2023, California launched an anti-hate hotline and resource network, California vs Hate, to address a sharp rise in reported hate crimes targeting racial and ethnic minority populations. While data has shown reported incidents nearly doubled since 2019, rural areas of California continue to be underreported.

Kevin Kish, Director of the California Civil Rights Department, recently spoke at an Ethnic Media Services webinar offering his observations and highlighting the importance of spreading the word about California vs. Hate's resources. "That lack of reporting out of rural areas is not a good thing. And that lack of reporting out of rural areas of our state is also reflected in the Attorney General's hate crime report," Kish said. "Many of these counties are reporting zero or very few hate crimes. We know that when people are afraid, when they feel isolated, it is unlikely for them to turn to government, at least not without a trusted intermediary, a trusted person or organization who helps them do that," he added. The issue is particularly concerning for Black Californians as increasing numbers of Black individuals and families have moved from coastal cities and suburbs to exurbs rural areas over the last 40 years in counties and inland areas, including Riverside, San Bernardino, and Kern counties in Southern California and Solano County, San Joaquin and Kings counties in Northern California.

SBCUSD Board of Education Elects New Officers

focus for the upcoming term includes empowering parents to become informed advocates for their children's education while becoming allies of their children's educators, increasing the number of students who are college ready and championing career pathways and the visual arts.

Abilez-Grande, elected as Vice President, brings years of experience as a special education teacher in SBCUSD. Her leadership will help guide the Board's efforts in expanding the Transition program for students with exceptional needs and encouraging and supporting District teachers in obtaining National Board Certification, which would recognize accomplished teachers and generate ongoing instructional improvement.

Also on December 17, the District welcomed new trustee Michael Santos, who was elected by voters in November to a four-year term. Santos, Ceballos, Dr. Scott Wyatt, and Felicia Alexander were also sworn in to the governing board.

The elected Board of Education sets policies, approves budgets and provides oversight to ensure the District delivers high-quality education and meets the needs of its more than 46,000 students. SBCUSD Superintendent Mauricio Arellano praised the Board's new leadership, saying, "We are excited to work alongside Mayra and Mary Ellen and the entire governing board as we continue to create opportunities for our students, build stronger schools and ensure a bright future for the San Bernardino community."

The new President and Vice President officially assumed their roles on December 17. They are committed to collaborating with fellow Board members, District leaders and the community to ensure all SBCUSD students receive the resources and support they need to succeed. The Board of Education meets at 5:30 p.m. on the first and third Tuesday of every month, unless changed per Board action, in the Dr. Margaret Hill Community Room, 777 North F Street in San Bernardino.
